

CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE COST ESTIMATE

August 20, 2001

S. 1057

Pu‘uhonua o Honaunau National Historical Park Addition Act of 2001

As ordered reported by the Senate Committee on Energy and Natural Resources on August 2, 2001

S. 1057 would authorize the expansion of the Pu‘uhonua o Honaunau National Historical Park. Specifically, the bill would modify the park boundaries to add a 238-acre parcel of land contiguous to the park, which the National Park Service (NPS) could then acquire by purchase or donation. The legislation would provide for additional expansion by authorizing the NPS to acquire another 159 acres and to then redraw the park’s boundaries accordingly. Finally, S. 1057 would authorize the appropriation of whatever amounts are necessary for acquisition and related activities.

Based on information provided by the NPS and assuming appropriation of the necessary amounts, CBO estimates that the one-time costs to purchase and study the 238 acres added by the legislation would be about $5 million in 2002 or 2003. We estimate that provisions authorizing the acquisition of an additional 159 acres would have no significant cost, because we expect that the agency would only acquire acreage donated by the owners. Additional costs to administer all land added to the park as a result of the bill would be about $0.3 million annually, also assuming appropriation of the necessary amounts. Enacting S. 1057 would not affect direct spending or receipts; therefore, pay-as-you-go procedures would not apply.

The legislation contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would have no significant impact on the budgets of state, local, or tribal governments.
